

Bio – Sean Pales

Sean Pales is a principal consultant and founder of ProSymmetry Consulting – a strategy and technology consulting firm focused on addressing the challenges of project, resource and project-portfolio management. Prior to founding ProSymmetry, Sean headed-up Microsoft’s pre-sales engineering business for its project-portfolio management software – including Microsoft Project, Project Server and Portfolio Server – for the Midwestern United States. While at Microsoft, he helped hundreds of organizations to envision and implement solutions built on and around Microsoft Project, Project Server, Portfolio Server and SharePoint technologies.

Sean is a former Microsoft Project MVP and has written several books on Microsoft Project and Project Server. He holds an undergraduate degree from Columbia University and has completed advanced graduate studies at the Wharton School of Business and the School of Engineering and Applied Sciences at the University of Pennsylvania.
